A Friends of the Library Event: Bestselling Maine Author Bill Roorbach
Sunday, January 10, 2016 at 2:00 PM

The Friends kick off their 2016 programming with award-winning author Bill Roorbach. A Maine writer and new resident of Scarborough, Bill is a bestselling novelist, short story writer, and journalist. He received the Flannery O'Connor Award for Short Fiction, and his latest book, The Remedy for Love: A Novel, was chosen as the "Amazon Best Book of the Month" for October 2014. His bestselling book, Life Among Giants, is in development at HBO for a multi-year drama series. This event is free to attend and open to the public.
